

Participating whole life insurance (PWLI)

is a type of permanent life insurance that provides a death benefit, cash value growth, and the opportunity to earn dividends. A PWLI contract is designed to remain in force for the insured's whole life and typically requires premiums to be paid every year.